

2025 Promotions

It is with great pleasure that we announce the promotions of our dedicated team members. We are thrilled to see their growth and are excited to support them in their new roles. Congratulations on their well-earned promotions!

DEIDRE DEASCANIS

Managing Principal

Deidre joined JKRP in 2002 and since that time has been involved in some of the firm's most notable work. Her concentration is in the design of residential, commercial, and adaptive re-use projects. Deidre has played a significant role in the conversion of The Naval Home, The Griffin, The Hale Building, and The Icon. Other mixed-used developments that Deidre has completed include 11 Cooper, 700 Delaware and Coulter Place. Deidre is married with two children. Outside of work, she spends most of her time on the side lines watching her children play various sports.

JASON WISTREICH

Associate Managing Principal

Jason Wistreich graduated from Philadelphia University in 2003 and has been with JKRP Architects for a combined 19 years. As a Principal guiding the firm's entertainment vertical, Jason plays a key role in driving new business development, shaping marketing strategies, and managing staffing. His leadership ensures the team's ability to deliver exceptional results across all projects. Jason lives with his wife and two kids in the Philadelphia suburbs.

JONATHAN BROH

Associate Managing Principal

Jonathan has worked at JKRP since 1997 and became a principal in 2004. He has been a key principal in developing JKRP's residential market; with a recent focus on modular construction and adaptive reuse. Jonathan's projects include The LVL North, Edgewater 2, 2112 Ridge Avenue and The Icon at 1616. Jonathan spends his free time watching movies with his son, dining in the city, and relaxing with his family at their cabin in the Poconos... which they currently share with a hibernating bear. (Yes, really.)

SAM SAUNDERS

Project Manager/ Sustainability Coordinator

Sam joined JKRP in 2017 after completing her MArch degree at WashU. Prior to her time at JKRP, she worked as LEED administrator at a general contracting firm for multiple LEED certified projects. At JKRP, Sam works primarily in the multi-family housing market, including the firm's first LEED Gold project in Newark, NJ. When she's not at work, she's probably either in front of a stove or out on a run!

TIM SHEEHAN

Senior Project Coordinator

Tim received his Bachelor of Architecture from Temple University in May 2012 and became a licensed architect in 2016. His design career has focused primarily on residential and retail projects. In his spare time, Tim enjoys hiking, 3D printing, and brewing his own beer. Tim and his wife Ali are excited to welcome their daughter in February 2025!

JASON MAAMARI

Senior Project Coordinator

Jason Maamari is an experienced architectural designer with roughly 9 years of professional experience. He is a native Pennsylvanian from a Syrian American family whose last name means builder in Arabic. Jason and his girlfriend currently live in the Queen village neighborhood of the city. His hobbies include rock climbing, traveling and sketching, and supporting his soccer teams both domestic and abroad.
